EUROPEAN UNIVERSITIES
ORIENTEERING CHAMPIONSHIP

FRIDAY MIDDLE

The middle distance competition was tough mainly because of hot weather. Running in over 30°C even in forest was challenging for everybody. Big sensation in women was local Tereza Janošíková (Palacký university Olomouc), who took gold medal also in friday's competition. To the podium she was accompanied by Liga Valdmane (Latvian Academy of Sport Education) who lost over 2 minutes to the winner as well as third Hanna Müller from ETH Zürich. Second sensation of the day for czech fans secured Petr Horvát (University of Technology Brno) with his victory in mens class. Second and third place went to ETH Zürich thanks to same guys as yesterday, this time their positions were switched, Jannis Schönleber absolved the whole course by 25 seconds faster than his colleague Florian Attinger.

TEAM SCORE RULES

The score is calculated as the sum of points of three (3) competitions in all classes according to the following rules:

Individual Competitions

- In Sprint / Middle Distance competitions: 2 best results (in points) in each class.
- All competitors having a position 30th and lower will get 1 point.
- Competitors who are not placed get no points.
- Individual competition points according to the table below.

Relay Competition

Relay team points according to the table below. Best 2 point scores count for the overall team score for each university. E.g.: if your university wins class MM, has a second place in WW and a third place in both MM and WM, your university will receive points for the first and the second places. The points for the two third places will be lost, nobody will receive them.

Points Table

Place	Points	Place	Points	Place	Points	Place	Points
1	50	9	22	17	14	25	6
2	45	10	21	18	13	26	5
3	40	11	20	19	12	27	4
4	36	12	19	20	11	28	3
5	32	13	18	21	10	29	2
6	29	14	17	22	9	30	1
7	26	15	16	23	8	etc.	1
8	24	16	15	24	7

Awards

The best three university teams will receive cups provided by the organiser. The overall Team score will be published on the event website.
